Lace Shawls

Seventy stunning shawl patterns ranging from simple triangular wraps to elaborate circular masterpieces, featuring yarn overs, decreases, and nups worked in the finest yarns.

Morning Mist Crescent

Beginner

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk blend · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A gentle crescent shawl with alternating bands of stockinette and simple yarn-over lace. The garter stitch border provides structure while the open mesh body drapes beautifully after blocking.

Silver Birch Triangle

Beginner

Yarn: Lace weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~750 yd

A top-down triangular shawl featuring branching leaf motifs created with paired yarn overs and k2tog decreases. Each leaf panel grows wider as the shawl expands.

Ethereal Wings Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight cashmere · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A semicircular shawl inspired by butterfly wings, using sk2p decreases flanked by double yarn overs. The deep scalloped border adds drama to the finished piece.

Frostflower Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

A rectangular stole with an allover frost flower motif built from centered double decreases and yarn overs that create hexagonal shapes resembling ice crystals.

Cascading Leaves Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A triangular shawl with overlapping leaf columns that cascade diagonally from spine to edge. Uses ssk and k2tog to shape each leaf with yarn-over veining.

Moonlit Tide Shawlette

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~400 yd

A small crescent shawlette with a wave-pattern border. Simple repeats of yarn overs and k2tog create a rippling effect that evokes gentle ocean waves at night.

Cathedral Windows Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight merino/silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,400 yd

An heirloom rectangular stole featuring Gothic arch motifs created through complex decrease sequences. Each arch frames a delicate mesh panel with yarn-over diamonds.

Wild Rose Garden

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A circular shawl worked from the center out, with rose motifs created by clusters of nupps surrounded by yarn-over petals. The chart repeats twelve times around.

Whispering Pines Half-Circle

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A semicircular shawl with stylized pine tree motifs marching along the lower border, formed by centered decreases and yarn-over branches. Garter stitch ridges divide the tree rows.

Starlight Fichu

Beginner

Yarn: Lace weight cotton · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~350 yd

A small triangular fichu with an eyelet star pattern created from simple yarn-over and k2tog pairings on every right-side row. Quick to knit and elegant to wear.

Orion's Belt Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A wide rectangular wrap with a central constellation panel flanked by diamond mesh borders. The stars are formed by clusters of five yarn overs around a central nupp.

Dragonfly Dance Crescent

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~600 yd

A shallow crescent shawl with dragonfly motifs worked in the border using elongated stitches for wings and nupps for bodies. Beaded eyes add sparkle.

Frozen Lake Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight cashmere · Needles: US 1 (2.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,600 yd

A large triangular shawl with intricate ice-crystal motifs built from sk2p and sssk decreases. The border features deep pointed edging worked sideways and grafted on.

Meadow Flower Triangle

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~550 yd

A cheerful triangular shawl with scattered eyelet flowers on a stockinette ground. Each flower is a simple five-stitch motif with a central yarn over.

Queen Anne's Lace Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,300 yd

A rectangular stole with Queen Anne's lace flower heads rendered in fine detail using chart-based lace. Each flower cluster uses nupps, yarn overs, and triple decreases.

Autumn Breeze Poncho-Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight alpaca · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A hybrid poncho-shawl worked as two triangles joined at the shoulders. Falling leaf motifs fill the body, with each leaf shaped by ssk and k2tog pairs.

Venetian Glass Crescent

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

An elaborate crescent with Murano-inspired geometric lattice panels. The charted lace uses double yarn overs and centered decreases to create interlocking diamond shapes.

Lilac Bloom Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A rectangular wrap with lilac blossom clusters along both long edges. The blossoms use nupps for petals with yarn-over stems connecting each cluster.

Feather and Fan Heritage

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight wool · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~650 yd

A traditional triangular shawl using the classic Old Shale/Feather and Fan stitch. Groups of k2tog and yarn-over pairs create the undulating wave pattern beloved for generations.

Peacock Plume Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,200 yd

A show-stopping stole with peacock feather eye motifs. Each eye is a 30-row charted panel with nupps, yarn overs, and paired decreases radiating from a central point.

Snowdrift Cowl-Shawl

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~450 yd

A versatile piece that buttons into a cowl or opens as a small shawl. Snowflake eyelets dot the fabric, each made from a simple yarn-over and sl1-k2tog-ssso motif.

Gossamer Cloud Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Cobweb weight kid mohair/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

An oversized triangular shawl in airy mohair with a diagonal mesh pattern. The fabric is incredibly light, relying on the mohair's halo to fill the open yarn-over spaces.

Heirloom Christening Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight merino · Needles: US 1 (2.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,800 yd

A square christening shawl with a solid center panel surrounded by concentric lace borders. The outermost border features deep pointed edging with nupps at each peak.

Ivy Trellis Half-Pi

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight linen/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A half-pi shawl with ivy vine motifs climbing the lace panels between the doubling rounds. The structured shape creates a deep, dramatic drape at center back.

Nordic Frost Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A rectangular wrap with geometric frost patterns inspired by Scandinavian ice formations. The angular motifs use sk2p decreases and yarn-over pairs in mirror symmetry.

Cherry Blossom Cascade

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A triangular shawl with cherry blossom sprays cascading from the top edge. Five-petal flowers use nupps surrounded by yarn overs on a stockinette ground.

Seafoam Ruffled Shawlette

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A crescent shawlette with a wide ruffled border created by rapid increases. The body uses a simple seafoam stitch with dropped elongated stitches for an open, beachy look.

Amethyst Geode Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight gradient merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

A large semicircular shawl with concentric bands of increasingly complex lace that echo the layered crystals inside a geode. Uses beads in the final border section.

Dandelion Wish Triangle

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A triangular shawl with dandelion seed-head motifs floating across the fabric. Each seed is a single nupp with radiating yarn-over spokes.

Twilight Garden Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight cashmere/silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,400 yd

An opulent stole with an allover garden scene featuring roses, tulips, and trailing vines, all charted in intricate lace using nupps, triple decreases, and double yarn overs.

Cobblestone Lane Wrap

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight wool · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~600 yd

A rectangular wrap with a cobblestone texture created by alternating blocks of garter stitch and simple eyelet panels. A satisfying knit with minimal chart reading.

Phoenix Feather Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A dramatic triangular shawl with large phoenix feather motifs radiating from the spine. Each feather uses a complex sequence of yarn overs and double decreases.

Morning Glory Crescent

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight cotton · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~650 yd

A crescent shawl with trumpet-shaped morning glory flowers in the border. The vine connecting the blooms uses traveling stitches alongside the lace pattern.

Diamond Dew Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A rectangular stole with diamond-shaped lace motifs, each containing a central nupp that catches light like a dewdrop. The diamonds are set on a mesh ground.

Willow Branch Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A triangular shawl with graceful willow branches arching across the fabric. The drooping leaves are shaped with ssk decreases and yarn-over veins.

Spiderweb Lace Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight merino · Needles: US 1 (2.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,500 yd

A square shawl with an intricate spiderweb pattern radiating from the center. Concentric rings of yarn overs and decreases create the web structure with nupp "dew drops."

Elderflower Fichu

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~300 yd

A petite triangular fichu with tiny elderflower clusters scattered across the body. Each cluster is three yarn overs worked into a single stitch on the following row.

Aurora Borealis Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight gradient merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A large rectangular wrap with undulating wave bands that mimic the northern lights. Short rows shape the curves while yarn-over lace fills each band.

Thistledown Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A rectangular stole with thistle motifs worked in lace. The flower heads use clusters of nups, and the prickly leaves are formed by sharp-angled decreases.

Coral Reef Crescent

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A crescent shawl with branching coral motifs created by complex cables and lace working together. Beaded accents represent bubbles rising through the coral.

Wisteria Arbor Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A triangular shawl with wisteria clusters hanging from arched trellis motifs. The flower clusters are elongated columns of nups descending from yarn-over arches.

Compass Rose Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

A large circular shawl with a compass rose at the center, surrounded by wave-pattern borders. Worked from the center outward with eight chart repeats per round.

Lavender Fields Half-Circle

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~600 yd

A semicircular shawl with rows of lavender stalks in simple eyelet columns. The garter stitch ground between the stalks mimics the rolling fields of Provence.

Quicksilver Mesh Triangle

Beginner

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A fast-knitting triangular shawl worked entirely in a simple mesh pattern of alternating yarn overs and k2tog. The resulting fabric is fluid and luminous.

Briar Rose Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight cashmere · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A rectangular stole with thorny briar stems framing large rose motifs. The thorns are created by bobbles while the roses use yarn-over petals and nupp centers.

Glacier Point Wrap

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A wide rectangular wrap with angular geometric lace motifs inspired by mountain ridgelines. The crisp lines come from well-placed sk2p decreases and yarn-over columns.

Hummingbird Wing Shawlette

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~450 yd

A small asymmetric shawlette with a single hummingbird motif charted in lace across the widest section. The bird's wing uses elongated stitches for feather detail.

Moonstone Medallion Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight merino/silk · Needles: US 1 (2.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,400 yd

A circular shawl built from a central medallion of concentric lace rings. Each ring introduces a new stitch pattern, from simple mesh to complex nupps and leaves.

Ripple Creek Triangle

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~550 yd

A soothing triangular shawl with horizontal ripple bands created by Old Shale stitch. The undulating texture is beginner-friendly while looking impressive after blocking.

Foxglove Tower Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,050 yd

A rectangular stole with vertical columns of foxglove bell flowers. Each bell is a small dome of yarn overs and decreases with a nupp clapper hanging inside.

Sunburst Mandala Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,200 yd

A large circular shawl with a mandala design worked from center outward. Twelve repeats per round create sunburst rays of yarn overs alternating with decrease wedges.

Raindrop Lace Triangle

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A simple triangular shawl with scattered raindrop eyelets. Each drop is a single yarn over with a k2tog decrease, arranged in a random-looking but charted pattern.

Persian Tile Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,300 yd

A large rectangular shawl with tessellating tile motifs inspired by Persian architecture. Each tile is a complex charted panel combining cables, lace, and nupps.

Snowflake Star Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight wool · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~750 yd

A hexagonal shawl worked from center outward with six-pointed snowflake motifs. Each arm of the snowflake uses sk2p decreases flanked by double yarn overs.

Honeycomb Lace Wrap

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A rectangular wrap with an allover honeycomb eyelet pattern. The hexagonal cells are formed by offset yarn-over and k2tog pairs, creating a sweet geometric texture.

Cypress Avenue Stole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A rectangular stole with tall cypress tree motifs flanking a central vine pattern. The trees use traveling stitches for trunks and lace for their feathery foliage.

Cirrus Cloud Shawl

Beginner

Yarn: Cobweb weight kid mohair/silk · Needles: US 6 (4 mm) · Yardage: ~400 yd

An oversized triangular shawl knit on large needles for maximum airiness. Simple yarn-over mesh on mohair creates a cloud-like fabric that weighs almost nothing.

Acanthus Scroll Wrap

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,200 yd

A rectangular wrap with classical acanthus leaf scrollwork rendered in fine lace. The curling leaf tips use short rows within the lace panel for three-dimensional shaping.

Poppy Field Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A triangular shawl with charted poppy flowers scattered across the lower half. Each poppy has four petal-shaped yarn-over clusters and a nupp center.

Icicle Point Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A triangular shawl with a dramatic pointed border resembling icicles. Each point is worked separately and features a central vein of yarn overs flanked by decreases.

Art Nouveau Lily Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight cashmere/silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,300 yd

A rectangular stole with sinuous Art Nouveau lily motifs. The organic curves use traveling stitches, while the flowers combine nupps, yarn overs, and triple decreases.

Sapphire Sea Crescent

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A deep crescent shawl with wave motifs in graduated sizes from small ripples at the neck to crashing waves at the border edge. Uses Feather and Fan variations.

Ginkgo Leaf Shawl

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~750 yd

A triangular shawl with fan-shaped ginkgo leaf motifs. The distinctive leaf shape is created by fanning yarn overs outward from a central stem of decreases.

Winter Palace Shawl

Advanced

Yarn: Cobweb weight merino/silk · Needles: US 1 (2.25 mm) · Yardage: ~1,700 yd

A monumental square shawl with architectural lace panels depicting arched windows and ornamental columns. The border features a deep scalloped edging with beaded picots.

Clematis Vine Triangle

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A triangular shawl with clematis vines twining up from the lower border. Star-shaped flowers use six yarn-over petals radiating from a central decrease.

Prism Light Wrap

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight gradient merino · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~650 yd

A rectangular wrap with simple chevron lace that showcases gradient yarn beautifully. The zigzag pattern uses only yarn overs and k2tog for an easy but striking result.

Magnolia Blossom Stole

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

A rectangular stole with oversized magnolia blossoms in detailed lace. Each flower spans 60 rows and uses layered petal motifs with nupps at the center.

Lace Tops & Blouses

Forty garment patterns from casual summer tops to elegant evening blouses, all featuring lace motifs worked in fine-gauge yarns with meticulous shaping.

Rosemary Lace Shell

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~600 yd

A simple sleeveless shell with an allover diamond eyelet pattern. Worked flat in two pieces and seamed, with ribbed neck and arm edgings.

Aria Cap-Sleeve Blouse

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A fitted blouse with a leaf-lace yoke and short cap sleeves. The lace yoke transitions to stockinette at the bust, with waist shaping darts.

Seabreeze Mesh Tee

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A relaxed-fit tee with an open mesh body and solid stockinette yoke. The mesh is a simple two-row repeat of yarn overs and k2tog, perfect for warm weather.

Wren Lace Camisole

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A delicate camisole with thin i-cord straps and a lace bodice featuring vine motifs. The lower body is worked in stockinette with gentle A-line shaping.

Dahlia Peplum Top

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A fitted top with a flared peplum hem worked in dahlia-motif lace. The bodice is stockinette with princess-line shaping, transitioning to lace at the waist.

Opaline Evening Blouse

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

An elegant three-quarter-sleeve blouse with allover feather-and-fan lace. The neckline features a delicate picot bind-off and the sleeves taper with charted decreases.

Meadowsweet Tunic

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight linen · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A hip-length tunic with a lace panel running down each side and a simple mesh hem border. Worked in the round with steeks for the armholes.

Ember Lace Crop Top

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~400 yd

A cropped top with a wide boat neck and an eyelet stripe pattern. Simple yarn-over rows alternate with stockinette for a breezy summer layering piece.

Lotus Flower Blouse

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,200 yd

A long-sleeved blouse with large lotus flower motifs charted across the front and back. Each flower uses nupps for texture and double yarn overs for the open petals.

Skyline Raglan Tee

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~750 yd

A top-down raglan tee with lace panels along each raglan line that widen as the yoke grows. The body and sleeves are stockinette with a simple lace hem.

Twilight Lace Cardigan-Top

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight alpaca/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A lightweight open-front cardigan-length top with lace columns down each front panel. The back is worked in stockinette for stability and drape.

Primrose Shell Top

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~550 yd

A sleeveless shell with a pretty primrose eyelet border along the hem and neckline. The body is simple stockinette, making the lace borders the star.

Candlelight Wrap Top

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A wrap-front top with lace panels on the overlapping front pieces. The wrap ties at the side waist and the elbow-length sleeves have a scalloped cuff.

Fern Valley V-Neck

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~700 yd

A V-neck top with fern frond lace motifs radiating outward from the center front V. The fronds use ssk and k2tog pairs with yarn-over leaflets.

Pearl Drop Blouse

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,000 yd

A fitted blouse with pearl-like nupp clusters scattered across the yoke and sleeves. The nups sit on a ground of delicate mesh with a button-back closure.

Summer Vine Tank

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight linen/cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A tank top with a vertical vine lace panel running up each side. The front and back are stockinette, making the side panels a lovely peekaboo detail.

Jasmine Poet Blouse

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A romantic blouse with voluminous poet sleeves in allover lace and a fitted stockinette bodice. The sleeve caps are gathered into the armhole for puff shaping.

Aster Lace Pullover

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A lightweight pullover with an aster flower yoke worked in charted lace. The flowers radiate from the neckline and the body transitions to stockinette below the bust.

Moonbeam Halter

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~350 yd

A halter-neck top with a simple diamond mesh body. The neck strap is an i-cord that ties behind, and the back is open for a cool summer silhouette.

Heritage Lace Blouse

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight cotton · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,100 yd

A Victorian-inspired blouse with a high collar, fitted bodice, and long sleeves in allover lace. The cuffs feature pointed edging and the collar is worked separately.

Dew Petal Swing Top

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~750 yd

A flared swing-silhouette top with a circular lace yoke and an A-line body. The hem features a scalloped lace border that swings with movement.

Clover Stitch Tee

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~650 yd

A casual tee with clover-shaped eyelet clusters across the front. Each clover is three small yarn-over leaves arranged in a trefoil, simple enough for beginners.

Cascade Ruffle Blouse

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A blouse with cascading lace ruffles down the center front. Each ruffle is picked up and worked outward in progressively wider lace, creating a waterfall effect.

Starflower Yoke Pullover

Advanced

Yarn: Fingering weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A seamless top-down pullover with a stunning eight-pointed star lace yoke. The star uses double yarn overs and centered decreases, with beaded nupps at each point.

Olive Branch Tunic

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight linen · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A long tunic with olive branch motifs worked in lace along the sides and hem. The linen fabric gives excellent stitch definition after aggressive blocking.

Crystal Lattice Shell

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~550 yd

A sleeveless shell with a lattice lace pattern that creates a diamond grid across the entire garment. The lattice uses crossing yarn overs and paired decreases.

Peony Garden Blouse

Advanced

Yarn: Lace weight cashmere · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~1,050 yd

A luxurious blouse with large peony motifs across the front yoke. Each peony uses layered petals of increasing size, built from yarn overs and nupp clusters.

Birdsong Cap-Sleeve

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~600 yd

A cap-sleeve top with a single row of eyelet birds along the yoke. The birds are simple V-shaped yarn-over motifs that suggest wings in flight.

Solstice Lace Dolman

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~850 yd

A dolman-sleeve top with a sunburst lace panel across the upper back. The wide sleeves taper to fitted cuffs with a complementary ray-pattern border.

Ivy League Vest

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~500 yd

A V-neck vest with ivy leaf lace panels flanking the center front. The back is plain stockinette and the armholes have a neat i-cord bind-off edge.

Gossamer Bell-Sleeve

Intermediate

Yarn: Cobweb weight kid mohair/silk · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~450 yd

A sheer bell-sleeve top in airy mohair with an allover mesh pattern. The flared sleeves feature a scalloped edge and the body is lightly fitted through the waist.

Marigold Lace Blouse

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight merino/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~800 yd

A three-quarter-sleeve blouse with marigold flower motifs scattered across the bodice. Each flower uses a cluster of nupps surrounded by petal-shaped yarn overs.

Frost Fern Turtleneck

Advanced

Yarn: Fingering weight merino · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~950 yd

A fitted turtleneck with intricate frost fern lace panels down the front. The high collar is doubled stockinette and the fern motifs use traveling stitches within the lace.

Bluebell Meadow Top

Intermediate

Yarn: Fingering weight cotton · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~650 yd

A short-sleeve top with bluebell lace motifs along the hem. The bell-shaped flowers hang from arched stems, each flower formed by a trio of yarn overs.

Aurora Silk Camisole

Intermediate

Yarn: Lace weight silk · Needles: US 2 (2.75 mm) · Yardage: ~450 yd

A refined camisole with a deep V-neckline and a lace panel along the shaped bust line. Spaghetti straps are knit as i-cord and the hem has a picot edge.

Thistle Crown Pullover

Advanced

Yarn: Fingering weight wool/silk · Needles: US 3 (3.25 mm) · Yardage: ~900 yd

A pullover with a crown of thistle lace motifs ringing the yoke. Each thistle head uses clusters of nupps with spiky decrease leaves beneath.

Coral Sand Mesh Top

Beginner

Yarn: Fingering weight linen/cotton · Needles: US 4 (3.5 mm) · Yardage: ~550 yd

A beach-ready mesh top with an open lace body and a solid stockinette yoke band. The mesh uses a simple four-row repeat for fast, mindless knitting.

Nocturne Lace Pullover

Intermediate
